1 THE COURT: All right. So, here is what I am
2 going to say, Ms. O'Callaghan, to the extent there are
3 payroll processing reports in July or August of 2023 that
4 reflect the payment of severance those should be produced but
5 not a processing report that doesn't.

6 MS. O'CALLAGHAN: Understood.

7 THE COURT: Ms. Olsen, what else, and its not to
8 encourage you to come up with something if there isn't
9 anything.

10 MS. OLSEN: I think that covers what we --

11 THE COURT: All right. So, let's do that.

12 MS. OLSEN: I'm sorry, there was one more thing.

13 THE COURT: Go ahead.

14 MS. OLSEN: Beyond the documents we had asked for 15 a continuation of Ms. Parker's deposition. We left with the 16 intention of coming back if we had questions about any 17 documents that were produced to us, but we would ask for 18 cooperation from the debtors and scheduling.

19 THE COURT: So, I am not going to rule on that.
20 Why don't the debtors produce the documents that I directed
21 and you can talk. And if you can agree that based on those
22 documents it makes sense to reopen then fine. If you agree
23 that based on those documents there's no need to reopen then
24 that is also fine. If you disagree you know where to find me.

25 MS. OLSEN: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Is the transcript of this going to
2 give you enough to proceed or do you need to settle an order?
3 What is the parties preference?

4 MS. O'CALLAGHAN: I think the transcript should be
5 fine.

6 THE COURT: Ms. Olsen, good enough for you?

7 MS. OLSEN: I think so, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay. So, why don't I encourage you
9 to order the transcript. I think its pretty straightforward
10 but proceed that way and if there are disputes you should
11 just reach out and we will get on the phone and try to figure
12 it out.

13 MS. OLSEN: Thank you very much.

14 MS. O'CALLAGHAN: Thank you, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: Thanks to both of you. With that we 16 are adjourned. Thank you.
